

Monthly Newsletter

August 2019

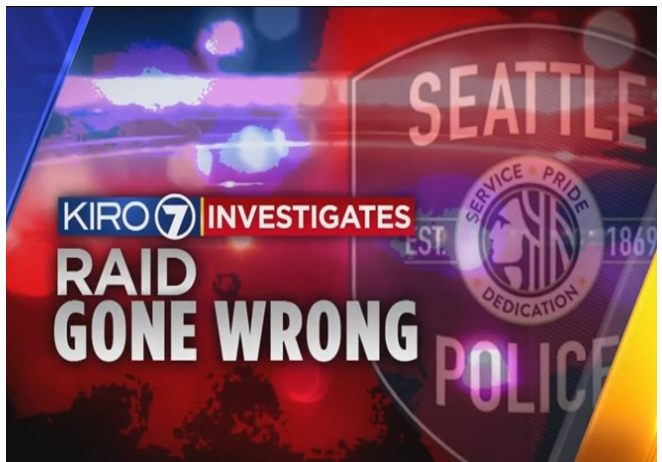

Photograph: John Minchillo/AP

The Search for Justice on Behalf of Eric Garner Continues

The officer who held Eric Garner in a chokehold which killed him, Daniel Pantaleo, was fired from the New York Police Department. Read more here about police violence and the impact of Mr. Garner's death on the Black Lives Matter Movement.

Kiro 7 Interviews CRJC Client Nancy Gill

The Civil Rights Justice Center filed a lawsuit against the City of Seattle, Snohomish County, and several individual officers as a result of their unlawful search and arrest. Read more about Kiro 7's interview with Ms. Gill and the result of the improper raid.

The Second Amendment and the Right to Bear Arms

The massacres in El Paso, Texas and Dayton, Ohio occurred within 13 hours on July 30, 2019 and July 31, 2019. Intense public pressure to limit militarized weapons and increase background checks is at the center of the movement. Read more here about how these incidents mobilized a renewed call for gun reform.

Title X Funding and the Trump Administration's "Gag Rule"

Planned Parenthood no longer receives Title X funding after the Trump Administration enforces new rules for recipients. Read more about the large-scale impacts on Planned Parenthood which provides family planning and reproductive health services to over 40 percent of patients covered by Title X funds.

